

HANDBOOK FOR LONG BEACH CITY OFFICIALS, EMPLOYEES AND COMMISSION MEMBERS

Mayor

Beverly O'Neill

City Council

Bonnie Lowenthal

Dan Baker

Frank Colonna, Vice Mayor

Dennis Carroll

Jackie Kell

Laura Richardson

Tonia Reyes Uranga

Rob Webb

Val Lerch

A GUIDE TO REGULATIONS GOVERNING

- Ethics
- Conflicts of Interests
- Financial Disclosure
- Accepting Gifts
- Political Activities
- Post-City Service Restrictions
- Open Meeting Laws

Prepared by the Office of the Long Beach City Attorney
Robert E. Shannon, City Attorney

INTRODUCTION

Thank you for your service and commitment to the citizens of the City of Long Beach. The goal of this Handbook is to increase your awareness of the ethics, conflict of interest and open meeting laws which will govern your service, and to provide you with information about how to seek advice on these matters from the Office of the City Attorney.

Robert E. Shannon, City Attorney

ANY TIME YOU NEED ASSISTANCE

The information provided here describes these regulations in general and encourages City employees, officers and commission members to remain aware of potential ethics, conflict of interest and open meeting issues. The law in this area is sometimes complex and legal advice is always dependent on the specific facts of a given situation. Therefore, it may be necessary for you to seek legal advice regarding your specific situation. For additional information please contact:

Office of the City Attorney
333 W. Ocean Boulevard, 11th Floor
Long Beach, California 90802

Telephone: (562) 570-2200
Fax: (562) 436-1579
E-Mail: cityattorney@longbeach.gov

Information about ethics, conflict of interest and other rules are also available on the Long Beach City Attorney's Web site:

<http://www.ci.long-beach.ca.us/attorney>

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Code of Ethics	1
Conflicts of Interests	2
Financial Disclosure	6
Accepting Gifts	12
Political Activity	17
Post-City Service Restrictions	19
Open Meeting Laws	20

CODE OF ETHICS

On February 6, 2003, the City Council of the City of Long Beach adopted a Code of Ethics, which applies to City employees, officers and commission members. This Code requires that all employees, officers and commission members shall pledge:

- To place the best interests of the City above all other interests.
- To uphold all laws, regulations and policies.
- To take no action for the purpose of benefitting the official or employee personally.
- To make every effort to avoid a conflict of interest.
- To avoid disclosure of confidential information obtained in the performance of his or her duties or in his or her official capacity.
- To exercise prudence and good judgment at all times.
- To be fair, impartial, and unbiased in the decision-making process.
- To treat each other and the public with respect.

CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS

Conflict of interest rules exist to reinforce public confidence that City officials, employees and commissioners are acting in the best interests of the public, and not in furtherance of their own self-interests. As a general rule, you should avoid situations where your official actions may affect or appear to affect your private interests, financial or non-financial.

For the purposes of this Handbook, references to “board members” includes City councilmembers, commission members and committee members.

What is a Conflict of Interest?

You have a conflict of interest if your public actions as a City official, employee or board member affect your personal financial interests or the interests of your immediate family members. It does not matter whether the action has a negative or positive effect on the interest. Therefore, state law prohibits you from making, participating in making, or attempting to influence any government decision if it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision will have a material financial effect on any of your economic interests or those of an immediate family member.

Decisions Related to Contracts

State law prohibits you from being financially interested in any City contract if your duties call on you to participate in any way or at any stage in the approval of the contract. Any participation (including discussion) in the process by which such a contract is developed, negotiated or executed is a violation of the law.

CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS

How Do I Know If I Have a Conflict?

It can be difficult to determine whether you have a legal conflict of interest pursuant to state law. Therefore, you should always contact the City Attorney's Office if a question arises.

You may have a conflict of interest if:

- You are an officer, director, partner, employee, trustee or manager of a company with business before your department or board.
- You have an investment of $2,000 or more in a company with business before your department or board.
- You have an interest in real property of $2,000 or more and that real property is the subject matter of an item before your department or board. This includes leasehold interests that are longer than a "month-to-month" tenancy.
- You own or lease an interest in real property that is located within 500 feet of a property which is the subject matter of a decision before your department or board. (An "interest in real property" does not include a "month-to-month" tenancy.)
- You receive any income which totals $500 or more within the prior 12 months, from a person or entity with business before your department or board. Income includes loans or forgiveness of indebtedness.
- You receive a gift or gifts totalling $340 or more within the prior 12 months, from a person or entity with business before your department or board (gifts include rebates, discounts, free meals, free tickets or travel).

CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS

- You or someone that is a source of income to you ($500 or more within the prior 12 months) is the subject of a proceeding before your department or board.
- As a result of a decision before your department or board your personal finances or those of your immediate family will either increase or decrease in any manner.

Remember that if you are married, one-half of your spouse's income is deemed to be your income. Therefore, if your spouse has any of the interests described above, you will have a conflict of interest.

The City Attorney will work with you to determine if you have a conflict pursuant to City or state law and to determine whether you must “disqualify” yourself. Please note that the mere presence of one of the interests listed does not necessarily mean that you have a conflict. Since other factors may be involved, if there is any question you should consult with the City Attorney's Office.

What Are the Remedies for Conflicts?

If a conflict of interest exists, you must be “disqualified” – meaning that you must abstain from making, participating in making, discussing or attempting to use your official position in any way to influence the government decision that might affect that personal interest. (If you are a Councilmember, you must also leave the room while the issue is being discussed.) Again, the City Attorney's Office will provide advice concerning the existence of a conflict and if disqualification is required. Further, there are circumstances when your entire board may be disqualified.

Please be aware that severe penalties may result for you and the City, if you do not abstain when appropriate.

CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS

How Do I Disqualify Myself If I Have a Conflict of Interest?

If disqualification on a meeting agenda item is required, you must publicly disclose the interest which is the subject of the potential conflict as well as the fact that you are disqualifying yourself from any participation in the decision. The disclosure may be made orally at the public meeting and/or in writing to the board secretary and must be made a part of the agency's official records (e.g., the minutes of the meeting.)

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

State law requires that all cities adopt a Conflict of Interest Code, which requires that designated City employees and officials make a written disclosure of certain financial interests.

What is a Conflict of Interest Code?

A Conflict of Interest Code is a set of rules and regulations adopted pursuant to California's Political Reform Act. Each Conflict of Interest Code designates positions required to file a Statement of Economic Interests - Form 700, and assigns disclosure categories specifying the types of interests to be reported.

The types of interests you must disclose depend upon the responsibilities of your designated position. The disclosure requirements may include the reporting of investments, business positions, interests in real property, income and other financial interests.

How Do I Know I Must File a Statement of Economic Interests - Form 700?

If you are required to file, the City Clerk will notify you of this fact in writing immediately upon your commencement of service with the City.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

Why Do I Have To File A Statement of Economic Interests - Form 700?

California state law requires the filing of Statements of Economic Interests. The Act states that:

“Assets and income of public officials which may be materially affected by their official actions should be disclosed (and in appropriate circumstances the officials should be disqualified from acting in order that conflicts of interest may be avoided).”

All elected City officials, board and advisory committee members must file Statements of Economic Interests. Certain employees holding positions that involve making or participating in the making of decisions, which may foreseeably have a material effect on the employee’s financial interests, must also file.

For more information on this subject, please review the FPPC guide, Your Duty to File, at:

<http://www.fppc.ca.gov/pdf/seicolorpdf.pdf>

When Do I Have To File?

The Statement of Economic Interests - Form 700 must be filed under the following circumstances:

- An Initial statement is required within 30 days after the date when an office or position has been added to a newly-adopted or newly-amended conflict of interest code.
- An Assuming Office statement is required within 30 days after the date when you take your new position.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

- Annual statements are required by April 1 of each year, covering the preceding calendar year. If you assumed office on or after October 1st of that year, no annual statement is due until the following April.
- A Leaving Office statement is required within 30 days after the date you leave a designated position.

Where Do I Have To File?

The completed Statement of Economic Interests - Form 700 must be received in the City Clerk Department, 333 W. Ocean Boulevard, Long Beach, CA 90802, on or before the filing deadline. Faxes are not accepted, and the Form 700 must include an original signature.

How Do I Complete My Statement of Economic Interests?

This depends upon what interests you are required to disclose, and what interests you hold. The City Clerk will supply you with the Form 700 and the appropriate department's Conflict of Interest Code which outlines your disclosure categories.

- Complete the top section of the Cover Page of the Form 700 with your full name, mailing address (may be a business address), and daytime phone number.
 - Section #1, Office, Agency or Court: Put the name of the department you work for or your board or commission on the first line. On the second line, if you are in a department that is broken into divisions, please list your division.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

On the third line, put the name of your position as it appears in the Conflict of Interest Code.

There are a few people who hold more than one designated position. They may file a single “expanded statement,” which discloses all the interests required of them by each of their disclosure categories.

- Section #2: Your jurisdiction is the City of Long Beach.
- Section #3: You will be advised by letter of the type of statement, whether Initial, Assuming, Annual, or Leaving. If Initial, Assuming or Leaving, check the appropriate box and fill in the date.
- Period Covered: For the Annual Statement, remember that you are disclosing information from the previous calendar year. For an Initial or Assuming statement, you are disclosing information from the year prior to your appointment date.
- Carefully review your disclosure category to determine if you have reportable interests.
- Read the instructions for each schedule of the Form 700, and be sure to use the appropriate schedule for each type of interest you must report. Put your name on each schedule you complete.
- When you have completed the appropriate schedule(s), go back to the Cover Page of the Form 700. Go to:

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

- Section #4, Schedule Summary: If you have disclosed reportable interests on any of the schedules, attach them to the Cover Page. Please check the appropriate box or boxes in Section #4. You are confirming that one or more schedules are attached to the cover page and contain information that you are required by law to disclose.
- You may have no interests of the type you are required to disclose, according to your conflict of interest code. If you do not complete any schedules, check the “No Reportable Interests” box and file only the completed and signed cover page with the City Clerk Department.
- Indicate the total number of pages completed including the Cover Page.
- Section #5, Verification: You must date and sign the cover page. The Form 700 cannot be accepted without your original signature.

Who Will See My Form?

Once filed, the Form 700 - Statement of Economic Interests is a public document, and must be made available to the public on request. Filers must sign the Form 700 under penalty of perjury.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

What Else Should I Know?

FILE ON TIME! Late filers may face fines or other penalties. Persons who do not file within 30 days of specific written notice provided by the City Clerk may be removed from their positions.

Where Do I Go For Help?

Questions relating to the City of Long Beach's Conflict of Interest Code and local filing obligations should be directed to the City Clerk. Questions of a legal nature may be directed to the Office of the City Attorney.

An interactive version of the Statement of Economic Interests - Form 700 and more information relating the Political Reform Act is available from the Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) website at www.fppc.ca.gov/. You may also contact the Fair Political Practices Commission's toll free help line at (866) 275-3772. For more detailed information, see How Do I Get Advice From the FPPC? at <http://www.fppc.ca.gov/pdf/advice.pdf>

ACCEPTING GIFTS

The state's Political Reform Act regulates your receipt of certain gifts. These laws apply to all persons required to file a Statement of Economic Interests - Form 700. It is important for you to be familiar with these laws because accepting a prohibited gift may subject you to penalties and may require the City to void contracts if a conflict of interest has occurred.

What is a Gift?

A “gift” is anything of value that you receive for which you do not provide monetary or other consideration of equal or greater value. A gift may include meals, tickets to sporting events, and rebates or discounts in the price of anything of value unless the rebate or discount is made in the regular course of business to any member of the public without regard to official status. Any official who claims that he or she did not receive a gift because he or she provided consideration has the burden of proving that the consideration is worth as much as or more than the gift.

Important Note For City Employees in City Manager Departments

City employees working in departments under the City Manager's jurisdiction are subject to restrictions on the acceptance of gifts in addition to those set forth below. Such employees may not accept passes or tickets to recreational or entertainment events, unless they are assigned to attend such events as part of their duties. Further, they may not accept gifts of consumable goods, such as food, drink and other products provided by someone actually or potentially involved with business with the City.

ACCEPTING GIFTS

Gift Restrictions for City Officials and Board Members

You may not accept any gift intended to influence you in the performance of your official duties. In addition, those persons who are required to file statements of economic interests may not accept a gift or combination of gifts during the calendar year from a single source with a total value that exceeds $340 if the gift is required to be reported on your statement of economic interests. A gift is required to be reported if the donor is described as a source of income in your agency's Conflict of Interest Code.

Accepting Honoraria

Honoraria are gifts or payments received for speaking engagements, etc. There are complex regulations governing when honoraria may be accepted, so please contact the City Attorney's Office prior to accepting any honorarium.

Public Disclosure of Gifts

You must publicly disclose a gift you receive and its value if:

- the donor is a source described in your agency's Conflict of Interest Code; and
- the total value of all gifts you received from that source during the calendar year is at least $50.

If the exact dollar amount of a gift is unknown, you must report a good faith estimate of the item's fair market value on your statement of economic interests. Reporting the value as "over $50" or "value unknown" is not adequate disclosure. This disclosure should be made on your Statement of Economic Interests - Form 700.

ACCEPTING GIFTS

Exceptions to the Gift Limits Items listed below are not subject to City or state gift limitations, and, if received, need not be disclosed on your statement of economic interests, except where noted.

- Gifts not used and returned or donated to charity or the City without being claimed as a tax deduction within thirty (30) days after acceptance.
- Tickets to a fundraising event for a tax exempt non-profit organization, or to a political fundraising event.
- Gifts from family members (spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother or sister-in-law, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, first cousin, or the spouse of any of these persons) or a partner in a bona fide dating relationship as long as they are not acting as intermediaries for restricted sources.
- Gifts to you or an immediate family member in connection with a non-recurring ceremonial event (e.g., wedding, bar mitzvah) valued at no more than $100.
- Informational material such as books, reports, pamphlets, calendars, seminars, or informational conferences exclusively for official or office use and valued at less than $250. (Note: travel is never informational material.)
- Items received from your union; food and beverage from another union if you are a member of a union.
- Personalized plaques and trophies valued at less than $250.
- Meals and lodging offered in an individual's home.

ACCEPTING GIFTS

- Meals provided at an event at which you speak, participate in a seminar, or provide a similar service.
- Meals paid for by a local, state, federal, or foreign governmental agency.
- Inheritances and bequests.

Are Meals Considered Gifts?

Yes. A meal is a gift, unless one of the exceptions to the gift limitation regulations applies. For example, a meal given to an official at an event at which the official gives a speech, participates in a panel or seminar, or provides a similar service is not considered a gift if the meal is consumed on the day of the event. A meal provided to an official by an individual in his or her home when the individual or a member of the individual's immediate family (an individual's spouse and dependent children) is present is also not considered a gift.

Are Invitations to Events Considered Gifts?

Yes. An invitation or a ticket to an event is considered a gift, unless it is a political fundraiser or a fundraiser for an organization exempt from taxation (i.e., a charitable organization). If the event is not exempt, the reportable value of the invitation or ticket is generally its face value. If there is no face value, the reportable value is the cost to the donor. It is your responsibility to contact the donor to ascertain the total per-person cost of the event. In other words, you must ask the person or entity hosting the event to determine your pro-rata share of the total cost, including food, beverages, entertainment, decorations, etc. As discussed below, if you give the invitation or ticket to someone else, you must still report it as a gift to you. In addition, if you take a guest with you to the event, you must report the value of two invitations/tickets. If a ticket or invitation is discarded or unused, it is not considered a gift.

ACCEPTING GIFTS

If a Gift is Given Away,
Does it Still Count As A Gift?

Yes. If you receive a gift and then give it to someone else or throw it away, it is still considered a gift to you.

Gifts of Travel are Restricted

Generally, you may not accept reimbursement for travel and related expenses from sources other than the City of Long Beach if traveling on official duty. Some exceptions apply, and you should contact the City Attorney's Office for advice about how to proceed if such travel is offered. It is important to get advice, because if an outside entity pays for your travel, the travel must meet state guidelines, and you will have public disclosure requirements.

Travel that is offered to you as a gift is subject to the gift limits – even if offered to you in your personal life outside the scope of your official duties. In some cases, you may be prohibited from accepting a “gift of travel.” For example, City officials may not accept a gift of travel from any transportation company, included, but not limited to, airlines, railroads, bus and shipping companies.

Exemptions to the gift limits may apply for certain types of travel offered to you depending on the destination and whether you are providing a service, such as making a speech, in exchange for the travel. For information, please contact the Office of the City Attorney.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Laws governing the political activity of City officials have been established to: (1) safeguard public resources; (2) ensure the government remains nonpartisan and neutral in election matters; and (3) protect City employees from pressure to support or oppose candidates or ballot measures.

What Is Prohibited Political Activity?

You may not:

- use or authorize the use of City offices, stationery, telephones, vehicles, equipment or any other City property for any campaign activity;
- engage in fundraising or other campaign activities during hours for which you are paid to conduct City business;
- knowingly solicit contributions for or against a political candidate or ballot measure from any City official or employee. Soliciting a contribution from the spouse of a City officer or employee is permissible so long as it is not a subterfuge for soliciting the City employee;
- permit yourself to be solicited for a campaign contribution by another City official or employee;
- receive, deliver, or attempt to deliver a political contribution in City Hall, any City office building, or in any office for which the City pays the majority of the rent.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY

What Is Permissible Political Activity?

You may:

- perform volunteer work, endorse* candidates, and take a position on ballot measures, as long as these activities do not involve the use of City time, property, facilities or equipment;
- use your own funds to make political contributions, subject to applicable laws;
- solicit political contributions from persons other than City officials and employees on behalf of candidates or ballot measures.
- use City resources to provide unbiased, balanced, and factual information about the purposes, provisions and estimated impact of City, state and school district bond issues and ballot measures, as long as all views on the subject are equally presented. (Remember, however, that City funds may not be spent to urge the passage or defeat of any ballot measure.)

*City officials should make clear that they are acting as individuals and take all steps to avoid giving the impression that the City supports the candidate.

POST-CITY SERVICE RESTRICTIONS

To prevent former City officials, employees and board members from exercising, or appearing to exercise, improper influence over City decision-making, City law establishes certain “revolving door” limits on their attempts to influence City decisions after they leave City service. These restrictions apply to you only if you are compensated for these activities.

The One-Year Restriction

All former City employees, officials and board members must observe a one-year ban on directly communicating, for compensation, with their former agency for the purpose of attempting to influence action on any matter pending before that agency. (Mayors and City Councilmembers may not communicate, for compensation, with any City agency for the purpose of influencing action on any pending matter.)

Exceptions to the One-Year Restriction

Exceptions to the restrictions occur under limited circumstances, including

- if your communication is made when you are an elected or appointed employee or officer of another public agency; or
- if your communication is made when representing yourself, in your individual capacity, in connection with a matter before the agency.

OPEN MEETING LAWS

Meetings of the City Council and nearly all of the City's boards, commissions and committees are subject to extensive regulations known as the Brown Act (the "Act"), which are designed to ensure that all deliberations and decisions of City agencies take place in public. It is important for City councilmembers and board members to understand these requirements, because a violation may either void the proposed action or subject the board members to criminal liability.

What Bodies Are Covered by the Brown Act? The Act governs the meetings of all local "legislative bodies," that is, all multimember councils, boards, commissions, committees and the like of the City. Only bodies created by charter, ordinance or the minute order of the City Council are covered by the Act.

Committees May Also Be Covered

The Act also governs the meetings of "standing committees" (those which have continued responsibility over a particular subject matter, as well as those with fixed meeting schedules) of the City's boards. It may not include temporary advisory committees (or "ad hoc" committees) which consist solely of less than a quorum of the members of the board, but the City Attorney's Office should be consulted. These will typically be committees of two members (of a five-member board) assigned to investigate and report back on a single issue.

What is a Meeting? A "meeting" of a board includes a gathering of at least a majority of the members (i.e., a quorum) at the same time and in the same place to hear, discuss or act on one or more matters under the jurisdiction of the board.

Such meetings may lawfully be held only if the notice and other requirements discussed below are followed.

OPEN MEETING LAWS

Informal, social gatherings of board members are not meetings, and need not comply with the Act, as long as there is no discussion of any subject matter under the board's jurisdiction. If these informal gatherings will involve discussions among a majority of the members relating to the board's official business, the meeting should be properly noticed, and an agenda of the business items that will be discussed must be posted. The public must be allowed to attend and participate.

The Act prohibits the use of direct or indirect communications, intermediaries or technical devices used by a majority of a board to assist them in arriving at any decision, which is called a "serial meeting." For instance, the Chair may not call two other members of a five member board to discuss an agenda item. Nor may one member contact a second member, who then calls a third member. The same is true for the use of forwarded e-mails, blanket faxes and the like for communication among a majority of members.

May a Majority of Board Members Attend a Conference or a Meeting of a Private Group?

Members may attend a conference or a meeting of a private group (e.g., a homeowner association), even if the conference or meeting will discuss matters of general interest to the community. However, a majority of the members may attend such an event at the same time only if:

- The conference or meeting is open to attendance by the public;
- If the event is a meeting of a private group, it has been publicized; and
- The members do not discuss among themselves, other than as part of the scheduled program,

OPEN MEETING LAWS

business that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the board.

Otherwise, a conference attended by a majority of members must be open to the public. The Act does not require the organizers to allow members of the public to attend free of charge if others are charged an admission fee.

What Are the Act's Notice and Agenda Requirements?

Requirements for Regular Meetings

The time and place for regular board meetings are established by ordinance, resolution or rules of order. They can be changed by similar formal action.

The agenda of a regular meeting of a board must be posted at least 72 hours before the start of the meeting. With the exceptions described below, all matters that will be discussed or acted on by the board must be listed on the agenda.

Requirements for Special Meetings

A "special meeting" of a board may be called by posting a notice/agenda and by delivering (by mail or personal delivery) the notice/agenda to all members and to all media outlets that have requested to be so notified 24 hours before the meeting. The notice/agenda must state the place and time of the meeting, as well as the matters that will be discussed and/or decided.

Exceptions to the Agenda Requirement

Under almost all circumstances, a matter may not be discussed at board meetings unless it is listed on the agenda. A board may discuss a matter that is not on the agenda at a regular meeting only if one of the following requirements are met:

OPEN MEETING LAWS

- By majority vote, the board determines that the issue to be discussed constitutes an emergency. This discussion must be held in open session.
- By a two-thirds vote of the entire membership, the board determines that there is a need to act immediately, that the board's consideration of the matter cannot await the next meeting of the board and that the need for immediate action arose after the posting of the agenda.

What Information Must an Agenda Contain?

The agenda must list all of the matters that will be considered at the meeting. Each item on the agenda should be described by a brief but informative summary of the nature of the matter to be discussed and/or decided. That description should inform interested members of the public about the matter so that they can decide whether to attend and participate.

What Rights Do the Public Have at Meetings?

Except when closed sessions are permitted (see below), all board meetings must be held in public. Members of the public who choose to do so must be allowed to attend; they may not be asked to sign-in or provide any information as a condition of attending. Also, members of the public must be allowed to record a meeting on a video or audio tape or to broadcast the proceedings, unless the board makes a reasonable finding that the activity would disrupt the meeting.

OPEN MEETING LAWS

Members of the public must be allowed to present testimony or otherwise address a board about each item on the agenda. A board may not act on an agenda item until it has allowed for public comment on that item. At regular meetings, the public must also be given an opportunity to address the board on any matter under its jurisdiction, even if the matter is not on the agenda. Boards may adopt reasonable rules governing the amount of time for such public comment on each item on the agenda as well as the time each member of the public will be allowed to speak. The public may discuss information relating to specific matters and must be allowed to criticize the policies, procedures or programs of the agency. However, disruptions of a meeting need not be tolerated.

Meetings may not be held in facilities which are inaccessible to disabled persons. If a board holds a meeting in an unusual location, such as a restaurant, the public must be allowed to attend without the need to pay any price for entry (e.g., if the meeting is held in a restaurant, they must be able to attend without buying lunch). They must be able to hear the proceedings and must be allowed to present public testimony.

Under What Circumstances May Closed Sessions Be Held?

Under certain circumstances specifically allowed by the Act, a board is allowed to meet in closed session. If a meeting is closed to the public, it is not permissible to allow some interested persons to attend while denying access to others. Generally, the only persons who may attend closed sessions are the members of the board and any City staff that is needed to assist the board in its deliberations. Persons without official roles should not attend.

In order for a board to be able to meet in closed session, the item must be listed on the agenda, or one of the exceptions to the agenda requirement must be applicable. Such exceptions are extremely limited, and should not be utilized without first receiving advice from the City Attorney's Office.

OPEN MEETING LAWS

These exceptions are:

- personnel discipline and evaluations
- discussion of pending or threatened litigation
- real estate negotiations
- labor negotiations

What Are the Penalties for Violating the Brown Act?

It is a misdemeanor for a member of a board to attend a meeting at which action is taken in violation of the Brown Act, if the member intends to deprive the public of information to which the member knows (or has reason to know) the public is entitled.

Violations of the Act may also result in the issuance of injunctions and writs of mandate to correct violations, prevent future violations, or void actions taken by a board in violation of the Act.